News and Reminders:

1. Next week I began our reading adventure with reading groups! We will start to dive into how to use all the blends we have already learned. We have almost completed all of our letters. I will be meeting with kids on their level. Raz Kids will no longer be optional, but required, even though most of you use this program weekly already. Sometimes you will notice that I will cross that out and add a little reader in there and I will write the title of the book on the log. This will be awesome for them to see how their blends and sight words are being used, point to words to show them how to read left to right, and so on. If your child does not know some of the letters, it is very important that you work hard on them until all of them are known since we will be moving forward with reading. I can't wait to see these students start their reading adventures!
2. October 27th is the 50th day of school. On Friday, October 30th we will have a pajama party to celebrate!
3. November 6 – ALPHABET FASHION SHOW PICNIC! Parents are invited! This will be an outdoor event. It will take place from 8:15am – 9am. Details to come!
4. November 11 – No school in honor of Veteran's Day!
