We had fun visiting India and Mexico this week on our Christmas World Tour. We learned about the Taj Mahal, learned about making mendi designs on our hands, and where poinsettias originated from. Next week, we will continue to South Africa and the USA. Can you believe it... we are nearing Christmas break?

News and Reminders:

- December 16th – End of 2nd 9 weeks. Please begin working on areas of concern. We will assess ALL of sight words list 1 and 2, the penny, nickel, dime, addition, large number identification, tying shoes, etc Report cards will go home in an envelope this time when we return from Christmas break. You will review the report card and keep it and sign and return the envelope.
- December 18th – Christmas Celebration and school is dismissed at 11:30am.
- December 21 – January 4th – CHRISTMAS BREAK! Students return January 5th.
- Begin planning for next school year! I hope to see you all back at OUR AMAZING BCA! Re-registration begins in January.
- No school January 18th for MLK Day!
- Look out for a Christmas Reading Challenge coming when we go on break. It can earn them a free homework pass and it is an incentive for them to read over the break. (Raz Kids time is fine for this too; you just have to write the books on the log.)
